

DISCLOSURE OF ATTORNEY'S INVOLVEMENT IN NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION

1.1 Nonprofit Affiliation: The attorney of this private practice hereby discloses their involvement in building and operating a nonprofit organization that also practices immigration law within the jurisdiction of California.

1.2 Potential Conflict of Interest: This disclosure is made in accordance with Rule 3-310(B)(4) of the California Rules of Professional Conduct, which requires attorneys to disclose any legal, business, financial, or professional interest that could potentially conflict with a client's interests.

1.3 Scope of Disclosure: The attorney's involvement with the nonprofit organization includes, but is not limited to:

- 1.3.1 Founding and establishing the nonprofit organization
- 1.3.2 Serving on the board of directors or in an advisory capacity
- 1.3.3 Providing pro bono legal services to the nonprofit organization
- 1.3.4 Collaborating on immigration law cases and initiatives

1.4 Commitment to Client Interests: The attorney affirms that their involvement with the nonprofit organization does not compromise their ability to provide zealous and ethical representation to clients of this private practice.

1.5 Client Consent: Clients are encouraged to discuss any concerns regarding this disclosure with the attorney. Written consent may be required in certain circumstances, as per Rule 1.7 of the California Rules of Professional Conduct.

1.6 Screening Procedures: In compliance with Rule 1.10, this private practice has implemented appropriate screening procedures to prevent any conflicts of interest that may arise from the attorney's involvement with the nonprofit organization.

1.7 Ongoing Disclosure: The attorney commits to providing updated information regarding their involvement with the nonprofit organization as necessary to ensure continued transparency and compliance with ethical obligations.

1.8 Client Rights: Clients have the right to:

- 1.8.1 Request additional information about the attorney's involvement with the nonprofit organization
- 1.8.2 Seek independent legal advice regarding any potential conflicts of interest
- 1.8.3 Decline representation if they believe a conflict exists

1.9 Commitment to Ethical Practice: This disclosure is made in the spirit of transparency and ethical practice, demonstrating the attorney's commitment to upholding the highest standards of professional conduct in both their private practice and nonprofit endeavors.
